

What to Know About H₂O:

{how plants use our important water resources}

How plants use water:

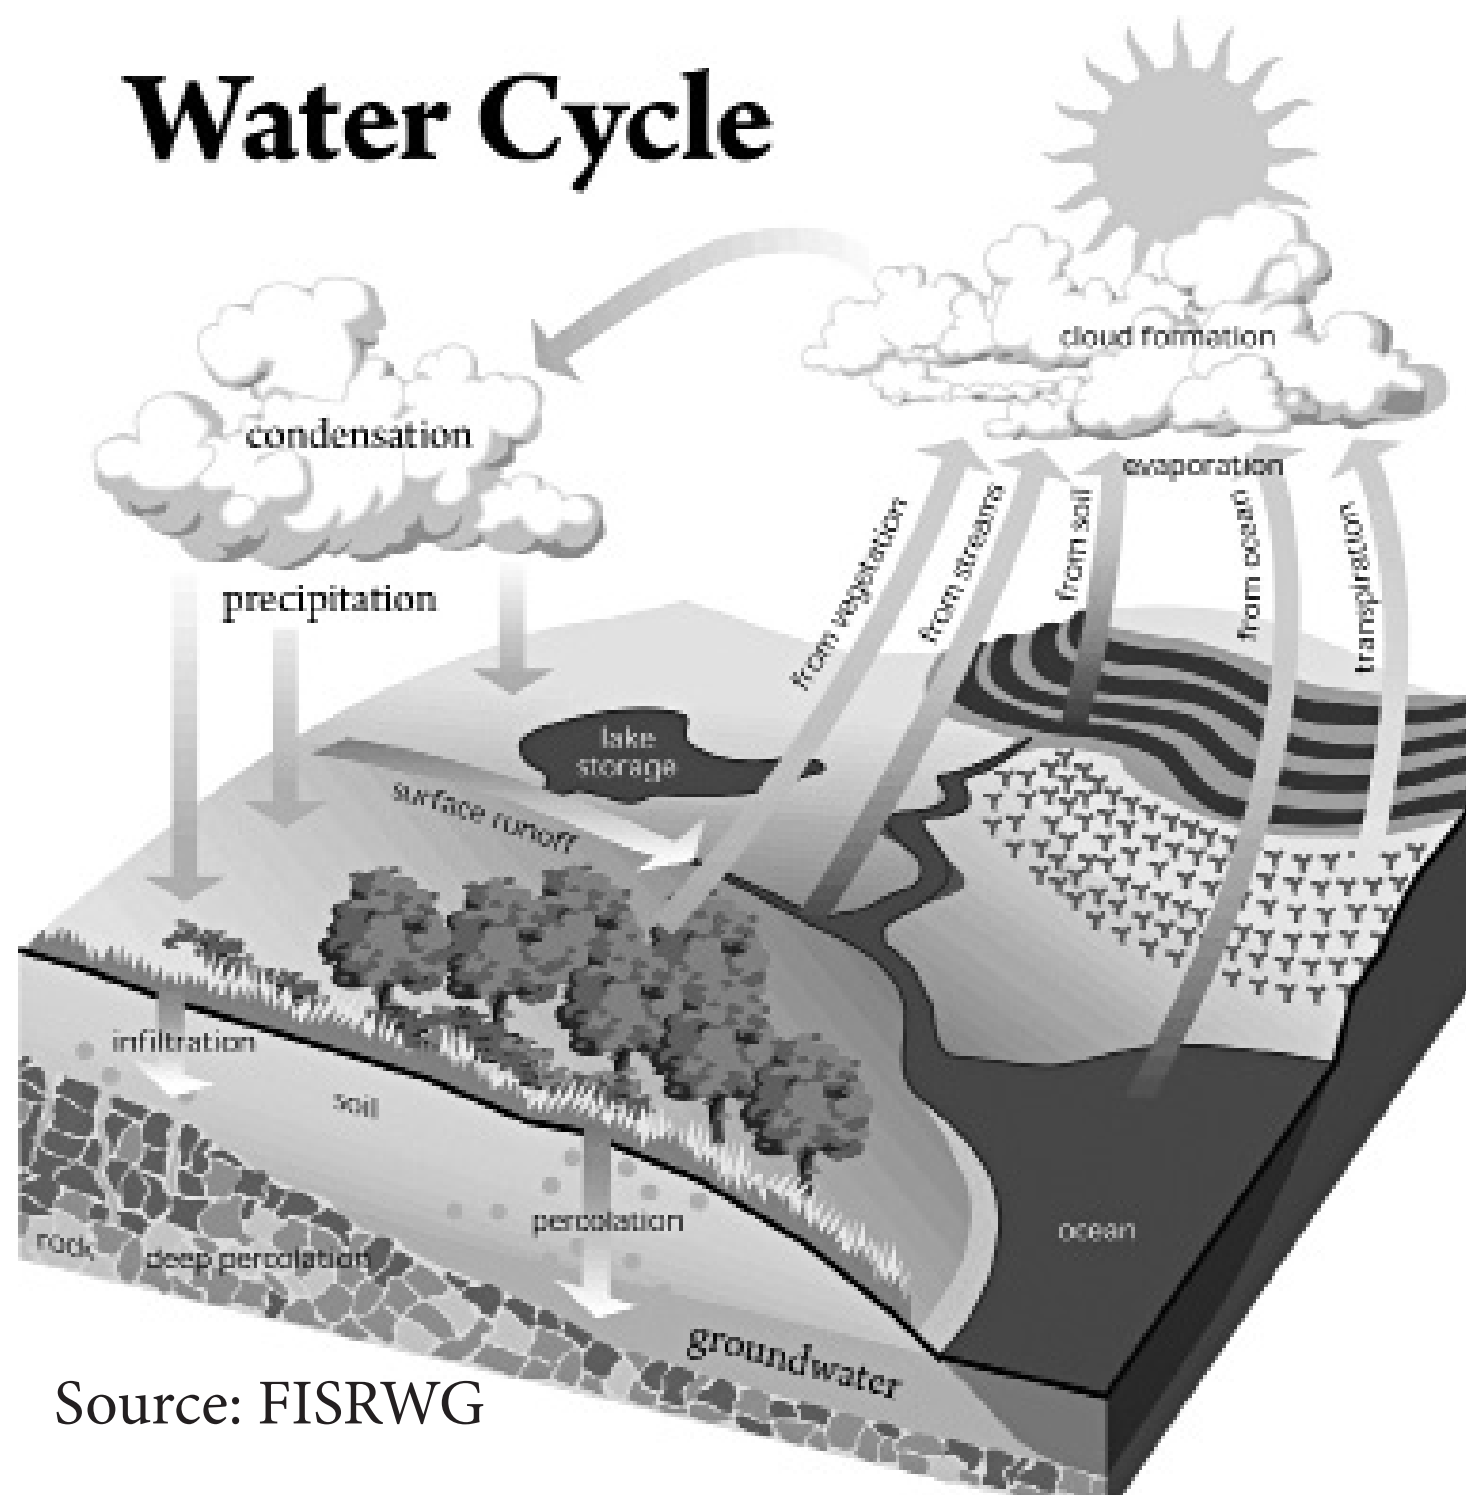

- To move nutrients into the plant from the soil.
- To hold themselves upright and keep leaves firm.
- Water moves from roots to leaves and then evaporates into the air.

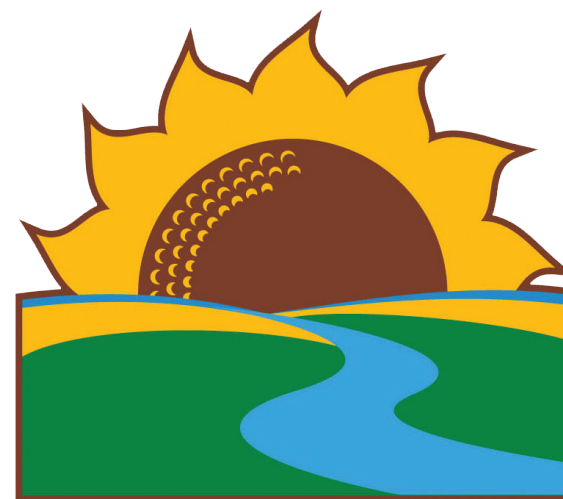

{This is all part of the Water Cycle!}

Water Cycle

Source: FISRWG

Kansas Foundation for Agriculture
in the Classroom

Connecting classrooms to Kansas agriculture
www.ksagclassroom.org